

CIVIL RIGHTS MARCH FOR UNBORN AMERICANS

ACROSS THE PETTUS BRIDGE; SELMA, ALABAMA

SATURDAY, JUNE 13 2009 10:00-11:00 AM

FOLLOWED BY:

RALLY ON THE CAPITOL STEPS

2:00-4:00 PM (SAME DAY)

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Dr. Alveda King (NIECE OF DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING)

The daughter of the late civil rights activist Rev. A.D. King and his wife Naomi Barber King, Alveda grew up in the civil rights movement led by her uncle, Dr. Martin Luther King. Her family house in Birmingham, AL was bombed, as was her father's church office.

After experiencing God's forgiveness, and healing from two abortions, she sees the pro-life movement as a continuation of the civil rights struggle. Dr. King is a former college professor and served in the Georgia State House of Representatives. She currently lives in Atlanta, where she is the grateful mother of six and a doting grandmother.

Cheryl Ringuette Ciamarra M.C.D. CCC-SLP

Communications Consultant, Pro-Life Spokesperson, Alabama Citizens For Life Board Director to the National Right to Life Committee in Washington. Born in New Orleans into a family with a strong faith, Cheryl has a background that began in the French Quarter's La Petite Theatre as a child actress.

After college she became the founder of Showers of Blessing Birmingham ministry, a group connecting women's groups to support young women who had made the choice of life after considering an abortion. Currently as mother of 5 terrific children, with the youngest in school full-time, she now serves as the radio host for Birmingham's Focus on Life Radio.

Tijuanna Adetunji

Advocate for the unborn, inspirational speaker, author of Dear Daughter: How To Choose Your Way To A Better Life, and founder of beforeyouchoose.org-Make An Informed Choice. Tijuanna shares her past lifestyle choices and abortion experiences to encourage African American youth and all young adults to embrace purity, value human life, and live responsibly.

She is a true southern girl, born in Birmingham and lives in Montgomery, Alabama. A pastor's wife and thankful mother of four children ages 8, 9, 16, and 19.
