March 14 – Shalene/California/16-19 – I love this website! I love how it gives facts about abortion. I think that abortion is terrible, and I am surprised how many girls have aborted the babies they made while having sex with their boyfriends! I am glad that this site was made! I got an A+ on my report! THANX! Ya guyz!

March 14 – Matt/Indiana/16-19 – I have had a hard time deciding whether or not I support abortion. The bottom line is now I am Pro-Life. If my girlfriend gets pregnant (which she will not because we have both stated we want to wait for marriage) I would be distraught if she got an abortion, not ever knowing if my son or daughter had my unique eyes or her hair color. Thank you so much.

This one needs a little introduction. Nesa has e-mailed us a couple times before – once when her girlfriend was contemplating abortion (decided not to) and again when she and her boyfriend were debating whether to become sexually active. She's talking here about doing a speech at her boyfriend's school.

March 14 – Nesa/Pennsylvania/16-19 – I had to speak about why I made a choice to go to school for being a forensic toxicologist and a serologist. Then I had to convince the women and the men that sex can wait! Doing that seminar was great because I thought back on the time I emailed you guys about me and Reece. I looked at Reece, and he smiled back, and that made me feel good because you helped us make a good decision. It felt good up there. I even told everyone there about TeenBreaks.com. I had to! Thanks guys!!!!!!!!!!!!

March 16 – Anonymous/SOUTH AFRICA/16-19 – Hi. I really do understand what both the girls and the parents feel. It is a terrible experience to lose a child who you have never seen or even named.

March 18 – Shenea/Washington/13-15 – I love your site. It really helped me see who I am, and I love the info you share! Thank you so much!

March 19 – Ashley/Idaho/13-15 – This is a very good website for teens to know about. I may only be 14 and still a virgin, but I am glad I found this site so I now know the risks of getting pregnant. I have taken a second look at sex, and I really think that I am not ready! I am not ready to take care of a child!!

March 21 – Mindy/Kentucky/16-19 – I really like this site. It's great. It gives teens a chance to give advice to someone else about the same things that they have gone through. They can also express how they feel to someone who will finally take time out to listen.

March 22 – Stacia/Texas/16-19 – Well, I am having a hard time with myself right now, and your website really helped me. THANK YOU TEENBREAKS.COM.

March 22 – Porchia/Illinois/16-19 – I think that TeenBreaks.com is a great website for teens, and I think that the site should stay online for as long as the internet service is available.

March 25 – Anonymous/California/13-15 – I think that TeenBreaks.com is a wonderful site for teens!! My boyfriend and I had engaged in sexual activities. I may be pregnant, but I don't know yet. I was already thinking that if I turn out to be pregnant, I would have an abortion!! Well, he and I sat down and looked at this website!! We looked at the pictures of abortions, and I decided that if I become pregnant even at my young age, I will have the baby!! If I become pregnant, then obviously God wanted the baby to exist!! Thank you TeenBreaks for helping me make a very hard decision!!!

March 26 – Philip/Tennessee/16-19 – Your site ROCKS!!! It is a God sent tool to reach the average teen: confused, struggling, and needing guidance and truth. I am 18 years old and doing a speech on abortion for a pro-life speech contest thing at school. Even though I don't like public speaking and the topic is a very sad one, your site has not only given me help and information, but also encouragement – because I can see the actions against abortion and see the truth written in a smart, accurate, and teen-applicable way. Thanks again.
